TCGWS

This is the first year catalog for the Thunderchild Gallery Workshop, Adult version. April 20th 2021 marks the completion of the first year of the gallery workshop and other locations in Second Life.

This book contains information on artwork and products by AJ Leibengeist. These items can be real world, virtual world or both. Virtual World objects are available on the Second Life Marketplace and in-World at the Thunderchild Gallery Workshop locations and other in-world stores.

I've been in Second Life since 1/31/2007. On 20 April 2020, I jumped in to creating the Thunderchild Workshop Gallery. It became a full time endeavor practically living in-world and working on property, products, taking classes, doing homework and shifting to enjoyment time for sanity.

In 2020, my existence was Second Life. 2021 Continues.

My artwork and products created from my artwork are available on the SL Marketplace and in-world on Casper Vending systems at the Milda and Triasm regions plus remote stores available in-world.

Real world products of my real world art and other designs are available from on-line on-demand product companies for a wide variety of goods. So, if you're a builder or maker in SL, RL or both, I got textiles for you.
