

Demo Falling Dominoes, Blue Copper Skulls set

This is a set of four dominoes with falling scripts and sounds from the public library. The textures have been created for them and sold as resell. The full sets include Double Sixes and Double Nines with three extra Jokers. The dominoes are for falling only. Touching them makes them physical and fall or drop. They will reset in a few seconds and return to the positions you placed them in.

You can play these all you want and make large sets of patterns to push over. There is also a set of Domino Balls that can go with these dominoes. Same scripts and sounds, just in the round. The balls can be set on the flat dominoes and they will fall and roll when hit or dropped.
