pursuits.

- The Space Station Thunderchild (SSTC) is managed by Iris Herouin. You can teleport to the station from the main or Moonshadow parking lots. There are public space vehicles available there as well as coins and gems.
- The SSTC has residential quarter for rent. There is rental information available
- Both Get the Freight Out (GTFO) and GridHaul are hosted on site. A lot of space GTFO goes through the Moonshadow dock. Be sure to Greet people that dock at the station.
- Web browser with sites to major space and land telescopes are on the office roof and on the SSTC. Some are connected to the NASA imaging from Hubble or James Web. Others connect to databases for stellar cartography and international air and marine traffic.
- The east shop has vendors for men and women clothing, accessories and expansion HUDs for clothing. There is a Brights inventory board with information and landmarks on avatar mesh bodies. The portal doors provide teleports to mesh body shops and malls with our remote stores.
- The west shop has art themed clothing and the associated artwork.
- Next to the west shop is the Books and Catalogs area. It has materials from other sites, the FOCUS Magazine and other materials are available there. There are rezzers and holovendors for books and catalogs. Vendor for other products is located there as well.
- The Moonshadow Transportation area is a public rez zone. Portal over or walk. Anyone needing to rez and get goods out can do it there.
- The Moonshadow office has Bright's Inventory boards with landmarks for various shops, resources and information in SL. There is also a panel for a floor map of the various areas at this location.
-  The KOCK.rocks BiPolar Radio station office will have album covers and lyrics from various LPs, CD and other multi-media sources. There is also information and web links to the iradio station.
- There may be public use vehicles out or rezzers for them. This included the horses. There are public rezzers for racing hoverboards and firefly racers. Many of the vehicles will work with collision teleports.
- The Smoke on the Water deck in the middle back of the backyard has information on other websites used by TCGWS and some free party goods. This area may become the holovend area for men's clothing and HUDs.
- West Park is a private zone for event space. It is normally used for LGH private fishing for group members. There is a board at both entrances showing the group that is in use.
- There are LGH coins and gems that may appear around various areas. There are no coins or gems in the West Park Area from lowest level up to 150 Meters.
- The clothing and HUDs holovend area is The Suns Deck located in the backyard. It is currently being set up and tested to display both men and women's clothing and various HUDs.
- The northeast corner of the backyard is the beverage deck. There are general and adult drinks available in a variety of standard and decorative packaging here. A set holovendors there can display the products. There are web browsers to each of the real-life product sites for each of the beverage products.
-  The collection of Punky Rooster and KOCK.rocks gear for both SL and RL are located at the east entrance of the backyard.

- The East Display Deck has framed artwork on display with browsers for their SL Marketplace and real-life matches. There is also a holovendor there for art and décor products.
- There are a number of framed displays around the grounds that cycle through their content. The images can be purchased local at the framed object or on a nearby Casper Vendor.
- There are a variety of games on site and more at the Triasm Site, Bear of Boogie Land.
- People can fish and gold hunt at the same time, and work a job, etc. Everyone should mind the rules. Warning is a courtesy.
- If anyone needs to be ejected or banned, contact any of the staff online or leave me a notecard in AJ's status board.
- Anyone can drop a notecard into AJ's Online Status board. All staff members have a status board near their main areas.
- The Landing area is at the main entrance off of Route 8. I has information on the site, games, calendar of events and portal doors to on-site and off-site places.
- The calendar shows events with the following icons.

ART EVENT

- Art event on or off site. See the calendar note for details.

10x10

8 hrs

- LGH fishing events for West Park

3x

8 hrs

- LGH fishing events for public.

W&B

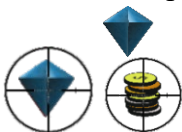

- A wake and back morning. When ever I wake up and get going with coffee and bong. Welcome to join and make music suggestions. Could be a fishing event or a Hunt event. Watch the group chats for information.

- Holiday Hunt Event. This involves pumpkins and probably is on Halloween.

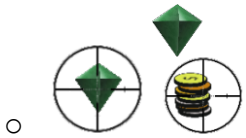

- Hump Day Hunt. Usually a multi rush day and may have extra coins for gems.

- Diamond Events. Rushes and diamond adds. Generally on a Sunday On Rush Days, there are multiple rushes to clear out old gems and recharge coins. If you find a dead coin (no budget or locked up) it is worth a L1$. See web browsers for details. On diamond add events, X number of diamond are added with a budget of 100 to 200 in it. When it dies, it is picked up till next month's event.

-  Ruby Events. Rushes and Ruby adds. Generally a Ruby Tuesday. Same goals as Diamond Events.

- The backyard Fishing buoy is generally at 1X and the Westpark buoys lowest setting is 2X. The West Park buoys will mostly likely be one or two times higher than the backyard on events marked for the backyard. The West Park fishing events don't effect the public buoy.
- There are public buoys at AJ's Texture Gallery, and Bear of Boogie Land.
- Bearofboogie runs his own buoy. AJ as the other buoys and all the gold hunting games.
- The sites Quick Information Document can be found on the homepage: <https://thunderchild.net/SL/>
